

“Google Developer Group” Nagpur Chapter Inaugurated at JDCOEM

The Google Developer Group (GDG), Nagpur Chapter of Google, an open platform for students and industry experts to interact with each other is installed and inaugurated at J D College of Engineering and Management. GDG gives opportunities to discuss and explore more about different Google technologies.

For the Inaugural program Mr. Mahesh Rakheja, Cyber Security expert (President of GDG, Nagpur) was present as an the Chief Guest. He delivered as expert talk on “How to do searching on Google”. He informed that GDG group is a platform for all the developers in the Nagpur city to discuss about the technologies provided by Google like Android, Chrome, you tube etc. Nearly 300 Students of various branches from J D college of Engineering & Management attended and registered for the mentorship program. The function was presided by Prof. S. M. Bang, Director, JES. Mrs. Vasundhara Malhotra, TPO, all HODs and faculty members were also present prominently.

The Program was conducted successfully under the coordination of Prof. S. R. Gupta, HOD, EN/ETC department. He thanks to management for providing the platform for the Inaugural.

Shri. Sanjay Agrawal, Chairman, Shri. Ajay Agrawal, Secretary, Jaidev Education Society, Prof. P. B. Maheshwary, Prof. S. M. Bang, Prof. N. H. Patil, Shri. Avinash Dorsatwar, Directors Jaidev Education Society, Dr. S. R. Chaudhari, Principal, J D College of Engineering & Management appreciated and congratulated the team for the successful installation of GDG, Nagpur Chapter.

