INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS (2019-20)

REACHING THE UNREACHED: CHAMPIONING INCLUSION

JDCOEM, is committed to provide quality education to the weaker sections of the society. Generous scholarships and fee waivers are offered to the students under the 'Reaching the Unreached' initiative. An enabling environment is created by providing support in the form of Teacher Guardians, who act as mentors to the students and offer them emotional and academic support. The institute practices an "Open Door Policy" for the students, wherein the students can approach any authority without any hesitation. Regular slots for Soft skills, Library, Counselling, TG performing arts and sports are an integral part of the time table for all round development of students' personality. AICTE sanctioned a grant of Rs. 14,37,000 under 'Skill and Personality Development Programme Centre for SC/ST Students (SPDC)' to the college in 2019. Sessions on soft skills, aptitude and reasoning were conducted under SPDC. Students Clubs and student forums provide an opportunity to the students to showcase their talents right from conceptualizing to execution of various events. Regular training sessions conducted by the in house trainers in conjunction with outside experts/ training partners plays an indispensable role in making the students industry ready.
